We have completed the requirements on the other side of this form. We understand that the chipped material will be left on our property to be used for landscaping.

Compliance with California Public Resources Code 4291 ("PRC 4291") is required by any person who owns, leases, controls, operates or maintains a building or structure in or adjoining any mountainous area, forest-covered lands, brush-covered lands, grass-covered lands or any land that is covered with flammable material and is within the State Responsibility Area. PRC 4291 requires 100 feet of Defensible Space (or to the property line if less than 100 feet) from every building or structure that is used for support or shelter of any use or occupancy.

Owner or lessee must also comply with all existing environmental protection laws and must obtain all necessary permits. Contact the Monterey County Planning Department to ensure compliance with federal, state and local requirements.
